

Angela Neira, a native of Colombia, is a senior loan officer and small business specialist at Life Asset, Inc. With her strong background in entrepreneurship, she provides technical assistance and microcredit analysis for small business owners. Throughout her career, she has empowered more than 3,000 small business owners in the Washington metropolitan area and has helped entrepreneurs create more than 400 businesses. Neira started her career as a portfolio manager and small business manager at the Latino Economic Development Center (LEDC) where she mentored small business owners about the start-up process and operations management. She has held many positions in academia including her role as the operations manager at Ana G. Mendez University. She holds a master's degree in project management from American InterContinental University and a bachelor's degree in business administration from Universidad Externado de Colombia. Neira also works as an instructor for the small business program at Carlos Rosario Charter School in DC, where more than 150 entrepreneurs have graduated.