

Mayra Bayonet is president and founder of Communities Connect, an organization that helps governments, organizations, and businesses create opportunities for citizen engagement and participation. She has 34 years of experience in community planning, development and outreach that includes her strong background in public service at the city and county level. She has a strong background working with government agencies and has an exemplary record of strengthening communication between communities and organizations. Bayonet is a recognized force in the community who is present at many community outreach and advocacy events. She is constantly creating connections between community groups that yield positive outcomes for her beneficiaries. She holds a degree in architecture/urban planning.