

Lanaea C. Featherstone, a Baltimore native, is president and co-founder of the William & Lanaea C. Featherstone Foundation. She is an award-winning leading nonprofit executive with more than a decade of international and management experience. She has been a featured panelist for U.S. News & World Report on topics related to the Latino community. Featherstone received official Governor's citation from the State of Maryland for her work promoting economic contributions for the Latino community. She received the Maryland Daily Record Newspaper's Very Important Professionals (VIP) Successful by 40 awards." In 2013, Lanaea received a prestigious Open Society Institute Baltimore Community Fellowship, from a pool of 150 applicants, where she created citywide computer literacy initiative that helps Latino immigrant parents secure better paying jobs and help their children academically. Featherstone holds a master's degree in Spanish and Latin American studies from The American University in Washington, DC and a bachelor's degree in journalism from Louisiana State University. She holds a PMP® certificate in project management, which is recognized all over the world as the gold standard and is the most important industry-recognized certification for project managers. She has achieved fluency in Spanish and traveled to fifteen countries: Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, France, Guatemala, Mexico, Peru, Spain, Sweden, United Arab Emirates, and Venezuela.