

Thalia Falcon is an up and coming Pop & RnB artist in the DMV area. A singer and performer of Cuban and Greek roots, Thalia brings with her raw talent, style, and a great stage presence. Thalia has been singing, dancing, and playing the guitar for several years now and more recently began her recording career as a featured guest on several recording projects. She has had the honor of performing in such places as the Kennedy Center of Performing Arts, The Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, Disney, various DC Metro clubs, DMV Festivals, weddings as well as in university's college sports games. Thalia has found music to be her #1 passion. In her debut-recording project with fellow artists Lé and Blest Jones titled "IV", Thalia shows off her great vocal chops and vast vocal range. Thalia's collaboration projects are currently available on all major online streaming platforms.
